IMPUTE.

- Impute, to attribute, ascribe, assign, to accredit, charge or even accuse or implicate. Alleging or asserting or challenge and cite is to impute.
- Imputation - Imputed righteousness is a concept in Christian theology which proposes that the "righteousness of Christ ... is imputed to [believers] — that is, treated as if it were theirs through faith". It is on the basis of this "alien" (i.e. from the outside) righteousness that God accepts humans

“What is Justification?”

“Justification is an act of God's free grace, wherein he pardoneth all our sins, and accepteth us as righteous in his sight, only for the righteousness of Christ imputed to us, and received by faith alone.”

Hebrews

When Christ came as high priest of the good things that are already here, he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not man-made, that is to say, not a part of this creation. ...How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!

2 Corinthians 5:19

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.."
